Year of the Eucharist Reflection

Inspired by the example of founder, St. Francis of Assisi, the Franciscans have ever fostered devotion to both the Incarnation and the Passion of Christ. In this meditation, St. Bonaventure (1221-1274) teaches that the Eucharistic body of Christ is the same that was born of the Virgin Mary and underwent the torments of the Passion. In this way, St. Bonaventure urges his hearers to discern the gift of the Eucharist, recognizing that it is nothing other than Christ Himself.

"Do this in remembrance of me" [Luke 22:19]. This is that sweet and precious memorial which renders the soul most grateful and pleasing to God as often as it is worthily received. The consideration of this most excellent gift should inflame our souls with love and wholly transform us into the Giver. For, what could He have given us more dear, more sweet, or more precious than Himself? He whom we receive in the sacrament is the Son of God, Christ Jesus, who took flesh and blood, was born of the Virgin Mary, suffered death upon the cross, rose on the third day, and ascended into heaven where He sits at the right hand of the Father. On the last day, He will come again to judge the living and the dead. For, He holds the power of death and life, and can punish or reward. He who is both God and Man is contained in the tiny host in the form of bread, which is daily offered to God the Father. He is our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the ever-living God.
