Contemplating Christ with St. Augustine

On Joy

O sweet love, O loving sweetness! Let my body consume You and be filled with the delightful wine of Your love, and let my mind speak good words. O Charity, my God, sweet honey, pure milk, the food and joy of angels, help me to grow in You so that I may taste You fully. You are my life, my hope, my desired glory. Hold my heart, rule my mind, guide my understanding, uplift my love, lift my soul, and draw my thirsty spirit to the flowing waters above.

I ask You to quiet the troubles of the flesh. Let all thoughts of land and water, air and sky, be still. Let dreams and fanciful visions, all languages, signs, and temporary things be silent. Yes, let my own soul be still; let it be transformed not by self-reflection but by focusing on You, my God, for You are truly all my hope and trust. For in You, O most sweet, gracious, and merciful God, our Lord Jesus Christ, is the portion and the blood and the flesh of each one of us. Where my portion reigns, I believe I also reign. Where my blood flows, I trust I have authority. Where my flesh is glorified, I know I am also glorified.

Though I am a sinner, I do not despair of attaining this communion of grace; for while my sins may keep me away, my very nature longs for it. Even if my transgressions exclude me, I am still welcomed because I share a common nature with You.

We honor all our veterans this Veterans Day. Please join us at the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday November 10 for the Choir's sung Veterans Tribute. All are invited, especially all members the Armed Forces, active and retired.

Prayer for Generosity

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
To give and not to count the cost;
To fight and not to heed the wounds;
To toil and not to seek for rest;
To labor and not to ask for reward;
Save that of knowing that I do your will.
